Day to Day

Day 1 Arrival in Maastricht

Make your own way to Maastricht, the oldest town in the Netherlands. Free parking at the start hotel. By way of a welcome we have arranged for coffee/tea and Limburg pie for you, to get your energy up for the trip ahead.

Day 2 from Maastricht (NL) to Liege (B)

36 km

When you're ready, set off on the first leg of your bike tour: from Maastricht to Liège, aka the "fiery city". On the way to Belgium you will follow the River Jeker (which flows into the River Meuse at Maastricht) to the picturesque village of Kanne. Shortly after, take a look at the boats going through the locks at Ternaaien/Lanaye, 225 m long and 25 m wide. From here, follow the RAVeL trail, via the friendly town of Visé, to Liège (or Luik, as it is called in Dutch). The last kilometres take you past tall cranes, rusty boats and old but busy industrial zones.

Day 3 from Liege (B) to Namur (B)74 km

Taking you right through the centre of Liège, the safe cycling path along the Meuse is very pleasant. Next, follow the John Cockerill railway to make your way out of the built-up area of Liège. Follow the signs for RAVeL. Seen up close, the blast furnaces of Seraing are awe-inspiring. If you like decorative glass, opt to stop off at the Val St. Lambert crystal factory shop. Next, ride your bike on quiet back-roads, past typical Walloon villages, never far from the river, towards Huy. Just before Huy, briefly switch to the bike track along the Meuse where the Tihange nuclear reactor is another very striking industrial complex. The Grande Place in Huy is the ideal spot for a lunch break. On the route along the Meuse to Namur, nature gradually prevails over industry.

Day 4 from Namur (B) to Dinant or Anhéé30 km

Follow RAVeL <La Meuse à vélo> to Dinant. You will pass the village of Wépion, famous for strawberries; and the Gardens of Annevoie, well worth a visit. In Dinant take your time to enjoy the town and riverside cafes.

Day 5 from Dinant or Anhéé (B) to Haybes (F)51 km

Quickly after Dinant, you will reach the lovely Chateau Freyr. Then continue on <La Meuse à vélo> for several kilometres on the former railway from Hastière to Mariembourg. Cross the border into France and the first town you'll encounter is Givet with its imposing Charlemont citadel. After visiting Givet, set off on the Voie Verte Trans-Ardenne and follow it to Haybes.

Day 6 from Haybes (F) to Charleville-Mézières (F)57 km

Continue all day on Voie Verte Trans-Ardenne, along the Meuse River. One of the day's highlights is a visit to the charming town of Monthermé. Your destination is slightly after Charleville-Mézières, known for its lovely historical town centre.

Day 7 from Charleville-Mézières (F) to Sedan (B)34 km

In September 2015, an extension of the Voie Verte Trans-Ardenne was opened. It now stretches along the Meuse till past the town of Sedan in northern France. Through a picturesque landscape you will cycle to Sedan, famous for its castle, the largest in Europe.

Day 8 Bustransfer from Sedan to Maastricht

First enjoy your breakfast and take some time to enjoy Sedan. If booked, you will have a transfer by touringcar (incl. bike and luggage) to Maastricht where your holiday ends.

If you go home by plane, we recommend to book an extra night in Maastricht at the end. You will arrive in Maastricht somewhere between 17.00 hrs and 19.00 hrs.
