5 days, € 485

Introduction

The Kop van Overijssel is a great area for cycling. A wetland area with natural National Park Weerribben Wieden with highlights such as Giethoorn, Zwartsluis and Blokzijl. But also historic Hanseatic cities such as Kampen, Hasselt and Zwolle. Beautiful nature can be found near the moraines at the equally attractive towns of Steenwijk and Vollenhoven. A wonderful cycling holiday with start and finish in the 'Venice of the North', Giethoorn.

Day to Day

Day 1 Arrival in Giethoorn

Make your own way to Giethoorn, also known as "Venice of Holland" or "Venice of the North". After checking into your hotel, what better way to view the village than from the water? So rent a boat (punt, whisper boat, canoe) or – if you don't trust yourself at the helm – go on a guided tour on one of the covered big boats manned by a skipper. The shorter route is through the village; the long route takes you onto the lake and into Weerribben-Wieden National Park.

The best thing about staying the night in Giethoorn is getting up bright and early the next morning to go for a walk with your camera at the ready and the village canal at its most idyllic – before the other tourists arrive!

Day 2 Giethoorn – Blokzijl

40 km

Set off for the friendly town of Steenwijk, a fine place to stop for a cup of coffee. By the looks of the earthen ramparts and moat that used to protect this town from enemies, Steenwijk has known less peaceful times! Then continue through the countryside past Steenwijkerwold and Oldemarkt to Ossenzijl. Ossenzijl is the northern gateway into Weerribben-Wieden National Park. Here you have two options:

Option 1, the short route 40 km: take the LF22 route right through Weerribben-Wieden and then continue to Kalenberg and finally to your hotel in Muggenbeet, a hamlet next to the village of Blokzijl.

Option 2, the long route 60 km: first take a detour past Slijkenburg and Kuinre back to Ossenzijl; and only then enter the National Park and continue as in Option 1.

Day 3 Blokzijl - Zwolle65 km

In the morning you will visit Blokzijl and Vollenhove. You need to switch on your imagination to understand that these two villages were once seaside towns where fishermen brought in their catch and then sat down to repair their nets! The land to the west of these villages is new land (polder) created in ±1942. Next, follow a stretch of the peaceful Zuiderzee Route (a cycle route that goes all the way around the former sea known as Zuiderzee), and pass through the pleasant villages of Zwartsluis and Genemuiden, hubs for water sports. The highlight of today is the Hansa town of Kampen. Cross the bridge and enjoy the old town centre of this beautiful place. On the banks of the River IJssel, cycle to the city of Zwolle, where you will spend the night.

Day 4 Zwolle - Giethoorn50 km

Leave the bustle of the city behind you and follow the River Vecht and subsequently het Zwarte Water to the lovely town of Hasselt. Take your time to explore: it is worth it. Your route then takes you back to Zwartsluis and then right through the wetland of Weerribben - Wieden National Park all the way back to Giethoorn.

Day 5 Departure from Giethoorn

After breakfast, this holiday comes to an end. Make your own way home.
